ABSTRACT

The reading performance standard descriptors in this document support the sections of the English/Language Arts Content Standards adopted by the Alaska State Board of Education. It begins with listing competencies associated with being a competent and thoughtful reader; thinking logically and reflectively; and understanding and respecting the perspectives of others. It then presents, in chart form, proficient level descriptors for reading performance assessed in third, sixth, and eighth grades, and in the High School Qualifying Exam. (RS)

READING PERFORMANCE STANDARDS PROFICIENT LEVEL DESCRIPTORS

RELATIONSHIP TO ALASKA CONTENT STANDARDS FOR ENGLISH / LANGUAGE ARTS

The CONTENT STANDARDS FOR ALASKA STUDENTS were adopted by the Alaska State Board of Education in 1994 and 1995. The performance standard descriptors in this document support the sections of the English/Language Arts Content Standards noted below. The Benchmark Assessments and High School Qualifying Examination will assess students competencies on these performance standards.

B: A student should be a competent and thoughtful reader, listener, and viewer of literature, technical materials, and a variety of other information. A student who meets the content standard should:

- 1) comprehend meaning from written text and oral and visual information by applying a variety of reading, listening, and viewing strategies; these strategies include phonic, context, and vocabulary cues in reading, critical viewing, and active listening.
- 2) reflect on, analyze, and evaluate a variety of oral, written, and visual information and experiences, including discussions, lectures, art, movies, television, technical materials, and literature, and,
- 3) relate what the student views, reads, and hears to practical purposes in the student's own life, to the world outside, and to other texts and experiences.

D: A student should be able to think logically and reflectively in order to present and explain positions based on relevant and reliable information. A student who meets the content standard should:

- 1) develop a position by
  - A) reflecting on personal experience, prior knowledge, and new information;
  - B) formulating and refining questions;
  - C) identifying a variety of pertinent sources of information;
  - D) analyzing and synthesizing information;
  - E) determining an author's purposes.
- 2) evaluate the validity, objectivity, reliability, and quality of information read, heard, and seen.

E: A student should understand and respect the perspectives of others in order to communicate effectively. A student who meets the content standard should:

- 1) use information, both oral and written, and literature of many types and cultures to understand self and others;
- 2) recognize content from the speaker's or author's perspective;
- 3) recognize bias in all forms of communication;
- 4) recognize the communication styles of different cultures and the possible effects on others.
